Surveys:
Encuesta de Hogares, Mano de Obra 1983, 1990
This is a labour force survey covering the metropolitan areas only. In 1983, 5138 households were included and in 1990, 4791. The income concept is monetary income including income from earnings (also seasonal work), rents, interest, family help, pensions and other sources. Psacharopoulos et al. (19979 had access to unit record data.

Encuesta de Hogares 1995
Encuesta Integrada de Hogares 1997
Encuesta Permanente de Hogares 1999
Despite different naming the surveys seem to be similar. The income concept is monthly income and includes earnings in-cash and in-kind, rents, interests and dividends, family allowances, pensions, private transfers, other transfers and other income.
