Internship Title:	Project Management Intern
Reference Number	n/a
Institute/Office:	United Nations University – World Institute for Development Economics Research (UNU-WIDER/PPSU/UNU-605)
Duty Station:	Helsinki, Finland
Supervisor Name:	Aino Hiltunen
Supervisor Email:	aino@wider.unu.edu
Duration:	15 August 2024 to 14 February 2025
Background For the past four decades, UNU has been a go-to think tank for impartial research on the pressing global problems of human survival, conflict prevention, development, and welfare. With more than 400 researchers in 13 countries, UNU’s work spans the full breadth of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals, generating policy-relevant knowledge to effect positive global change. UNU maintains more than 200 collaborations with UN agencies and leading universities and research institutions across the globe. UNU-WIDER is one of 14 research and training Institutes that comprise the think tanks in the UNU system. UNU-WIDER is a leading international development economics think tank. The Institute provides economic analysis and policy advice with the aim of promoting sustainable and equitable development for all. The Institute began operations in 1985 in Helsinki, Finland, as the first research centre of the United Nations University. Today, it is a unique blend of think tank, research institute, and UN agency — providing a range of services from policy advice to governments, as well as freely available original research. More information on UNU-WIDER and its current work programme are available on the Institute's website. For more information, please visit https://www.wider.unu.edu/. This is an in-person internship, located within the Partnerships and Programme Support Unit, and will work with colleagues and projects across the UNU-WIDER 2024-2027 Work Programme ‘Just Energy Transition, Conflict, and Inequality: Addressing the Three Mega-Challenges of Our Times’.
Description of Responsibilities Under the direct supervision of the Project Associate of the Inequality theme of the UNU-WIDER 2024-2027 work programme, and the overall supervision of UNU-WIDER’s Partnerships & Programme Officer, the Project Management Intern will be performing the following duties: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Support the project team with coordination of project planning and implementation;• Collect and analyze background materials and assist with compiling, summarizing, and presenting a variety of documents and reports;• Update internal databases and project management tools;• Support organization of project events and activities;

- Assist the project team with publication monitoring and processing;
- Perform other duties as assigned by the supervisor.

The intern will be part of a project team and the overall Partnerships and Programme Unit structure of UNU-WIDER and will be learning on the job daily. Dedicated time will be allocated by the supervisor for understanding the functioning of UNU-WIDER and the UN system in general. The intern will get exposed to the functioning of a UN think tank implementing research, capacity development, and policy engagement activities while operating within the UN rules and regulations.

The intern will be able to participate in training offered by UNU-WIDER, including attending presentations at the WIDER Seminar series or other relevant events. Other opportunities will be discussed with the intern upon arrival.

No travel missions are foreseen from the outset.
